

Introducing Trade Risk ReviewSM

An Innovative Risk Management Service Available Exclusively to Roanoke Trade Clients

Trade Risk ReviewSM Program

For our clients who are seeking a practical solution to address their legal concerns including proper documentation, regulatory compliance and operational exposures, we are pleased to introduce the new Trade Risk Review ProgramSM. This new program provides access to an attorney well-versed in the business activities of freight forwarders, 3PLs, customs brokers, property brokers, warehouse operators and others in the industry.

Trade Risk ReviewSM is a viable yet affordable solution to help you gain insight into your operations and the legal requirements to which you're exposed. There are three different providers to choose from and each firm offers a unique package of services.

The programs vary but may include the following services:

- Analysis and review of your business activities
- Document review including terms and conditions of service, bills of lading and warehouse receipts
- Access to reference documents pertinent to your industry
- Preferred rates for future services

You simply select from the program options provided that will best meet your requirements. As a Roanoke Trade client you have access to these essential services at a preferred rate making it easier to create a partnership for handling your legal needs moving forward.

Please note that Roanoke Trade does not provide legal services, nor do we make specific recommendations as to your selection of an attorney.
