

ATA Carnet Fee Schedule

Use this Fee Schedule as a guide to determine the costs for obtaining an ATA Carnet and ATA Carnet-related services. Your DB Schenker eCarnet application will automatically calculate the fees for you, which will display after entering your application on the Estimated Fee page. ATA Carnet Cargo Insurance is an optional service. If you have any questions please contact your DB Schenker eCarnet Service Team at 1.844.eCarnet (1.844.322.7638) or eCarnet@DBSchenker.com.

ATA Carnet Basic Fee

All ATA Carnets are assessed a Base fee by the U.S. Council for International Business (USCIB). The Base fee is calculated based upon the total value of the General List. The fee covers the first page of the General List and up to four sets of counterfoils and corresponding vouchers (U.S., foreign or transit).

General List Value	Basic Fee
$0 - $9,999	$255
$10,000 - $49,999	$300
$50,000 - $149,999	$365
$150,000 - $399,999	$425

ATA Carnet Security Deposit and Bond

The USCIB generally requires a security/bond amount of 40% of the total General List value. Except when traveling to Brazil, USCIB requires 60% of the total General List Value, and India the requirement is 55%. In some cases where vehicles are traveling on an ATA Carnet USCIB requires 100% to 150% of the value for the security deposit. For further clarification please contact your DB Schenker eCarnet Service Team at 1.844.eCarnet (1.844.322.7638) or eCarnet@DBSchenker.com

Bond Premium is generally assessed at 1% of the amount calculated above, with a minimum of $50.00

Lost Document Coverage

Replacing a lost ATA Carnet can result in costly replacement and delivery fees as well as lengthy delays. Purchasing lost document coverage at the time of your initial ATA Carnet application is a simple and inexpensive way to eliminate these potential risks. In the event your ATA Carnet document is lost or destroyed, a duplicate is quickly issued and shipped to you at no additional fee other than shipping cost. Otherwise, standard basic fees apply.

Lost Document Coverage: $35.00
